Have you figured it out yet?

Our featured Kiwanian stands alone with many of his accomplishments. His high school class was the first to go through and graduate from the new Hastings High School. He has been a snow and water skier plus enjoying the sport of fishing. Now his accomplishments become interesting: He has parachuted from a perfectly good airplane to try sky-diving, when his daughter was younger, he raced her up the stairs to the top of a fifteen story building, he enjoys amusement parks with his grandchildren and especially the roller coasters, he has climbed Mount Kilimanjoro in Africa, he is probably the only person here that has water-skied around Lake Hastings seated in a chair reading the newspaper, he has four grandchildren, he is very physically fit and has placed several times at the Cornhusker State Games, this humble Kiwanian now speaks conversational Swahili and has traveled to Africa every year for almost twenty years now in an effort to help and assist his fellow man to better themselves. This retired successful farmer now enjoys photography, the computer, and most especially his grandchildren. Fellow Kiwanians, we are fortunate to enjoy the company of our photographer, Neal Grothen.
